SINCE 1941 ...

Steeped in tradition, the Illini Union is an exceptional setting that truly encompasses the ideals of the University of Illinois. Located in the heart of campus between the main Quad and Green Street, the Illini Union's architecture was modeled after Colonial Williamsburg. The interior features maple woodwork which has been beautifully preserved throughout the years. First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt christened the doors of the Illini Union in 1942, thus beginning the rich history of the building—enjoyed by students, faculty, alumni, and guests alike.

THE ILLINI UNION HOTEL

The Illini Union Hotel boasts 74 guest rooms with expansive views of the main Quad. Staying at the Illini Union Hotel puts virtually all of the campus attractions right at your fingertips, including the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, the State Farm Center, Memorial Stadium, Campus Recreation facilities, academic buildings, Campustown food and entertainment, and city and campus bus stops.
